\textit{Paddling the Rio Grande}
(Big Bend, Texas) January 15-24\textsuperscript{th} 2015

The Rio Grande is a wild and scenic river that runs through the canyons of Big Bend National Park, Texas. This paddle trip will lead us through the incredible scenery around the Rio Grande, providing an exhilarating paddling experience on a rustic river that borders Mexico and Texas. With five days of paddling, participants will be able to thoroughly enjoy the desert south for its incredible night skies, tall canyons, and warm spring-like weather – All during the middle of winter! This trip contains mostly backcountry paddling, but will also feature awesome activities like swimming in hot springs, hiking, and sight-seeing!

\textit{Canoeing & Backpacking Florida}
(Central Florida) January 14-25th, 2015

Want to experience Florida in a unique way? This trip will provide a combination of activities and adventures that is bound to be well worth your time! The Ocklawaha River is said by some to be "the most rustic river" in Florida. We will spend three days canoeing and river-camping on the Ocklawaha in a pristine natural setting. Following our time on the river, we will continue our adventure by backpacking the National Florida Scenic Trail through the center of nearby Ocala National Forest. Our days spent traveling to-and-from Florida will include spending time relaxing and enjoying other activities.
3) Dogsledding in the Boundary Waters
   a. January 21-25th (5-Day)
   b. $465 Before November 25th  $495 After November 25th
   c. Price Includes: Transportation, equipment, food while in the field & lodging

Dogsledding (two days), Snowshoeing, and Cross Country Skiing
(Boundary Waters, Northern Minnesota) January 21th-25th, 2015
This trip is a true once in a lifetime experience! You won't want to miss it.
The warm and inviting Camp Menogyn Lodge will serve as our basecamp as we take morning and afternoon excursions such as dog sledding, cross country skiing, and snowshoeing. During "dog time" you'll get to lead your own dog sled team along snow covered and tree lined trails. Your evenings will be filled with cups of hot cocoa, good conversation, and fun games next to the glow of a wood burning fire. This is a deluxe trip with warm accommodations, adventurous excursions, and great food.

4) Adventure Road Trip & Backpacking
   a. January 11-25th (15-Day)
   b. $695 Before November 25th  $725 After November 25th
   c. Price Includes: Transportation, equipment, permits, food, lodging, gear

Adventure Road Trip & Backpacking Expedition
(Arizona, Southern California, Utah, Colorado) January 11-25th
Looking for the adventure of a lifetime? How about a combo trip that involves road-tripping, camping, kayaking, hiking, caving, exploring, backpacking, and sight-seeing! This is the ultimate way to see the Southwestern United States during a time of year that only offers cold and snow otherwise. We plan on taking one week to travel to, hike, paddle, camp, and explore caves in Arizona before heading to Southern California to spend four days backcountry backpacking on the infamous Pacific Crest Trail, and then finishing by swinging up through the Grand Canyon of Arizona, and back through the snow-capped mountains of Utah and Colorado. This trip promises to offer an array of adventures and memories that will last!
